Chantal Chamandy, Music Of The Moon

every night they wait to hear the music of the moon they believe that when they hear it love will last forever so they light the candles on the beach where they dance together cheek to cheek stars are shining, love is in the air they sing their hearts without a care lalalalallalalalalalala lalalalalalove is here to stay lalalalallalalalala

holding hands they dance the night away lalalalalala I can hear the music call your name lalalallalala lalalalalove is here to stay in their hearts they believe that life gives you what you need their faith is strong, life is precious, they're together forever (together forever)

so they light the candles on the beach
stars are shinning, love is in the air

holding hands they dance the night away
