

112, Damn

damn
why d'ya have to look so good
damn
why d'ya have to be so sexy
damn
why d'ya have to dress so fly why d'ya have to catch my eye ohh wont somebody tell me why

why'd i have to fall in love everytime when i knew that i wasn't ready ohh why, why did i fall for you why did i love her too what was i supposed to do

(chorus)
damn, no i never really meant to break your heart no damn, no i never really meant to leave you lonely damn, but i had to accept that we were not happy (it just wasn't) it just wasn't, working

why d'ya have to be so cool at a time, when me n my girl was having our problems ohhh
damn
why'd she have to be so cruel why did i turn to you did i make the wrong move?

why did you give me space at a time when my girl was tryin to crowd me ohh damn why d'ya have to take her place why did you have to stay why was it too late for us

(chorus x2)
damn, but i had to accept that we were not happy (listen)

maybe i should let it go or should i let her know i got another on the side and she does everythin right i dont know what else to do, im not happy with you, you just aint doin..

when she steps in and everythin i need she's giving me i cant believe just how good she is to me and i dont ever want her to stop 'cause i lover her so much, all that i can say is

(chorus)
