

22 Pistepirkko, Birdy

here comes my darling saying hello you hey why you look so worried whats so wrong with you I felt something evil lying in my room
it makes me really scared dont you feel it too I know, it dont really matter does it really matter
if we go insane, my darling do we always stick together
does it really matter
you said you saw shooting on a market square since when I have been dull to see blood in everywhere this time man was you uncle you wonder what went wrong he always looked so harmless walking I know ...
