30 Seconds to Mars, Echelon

Look at the red red changes in the sky Look at the separation in the border line But don't look at everything here inside And be afraid, afraid to speak your mind

It took a moment before I lost myself in here It took a moment and I could not be found? Again and again and again I see your face in everything It took a moment the moment it could not be found?

What's with the fascination with the Echelon What's with the constant questions that you have this time What's with this circumstancial consequence Find oversight before this night will ever rise again It's all you've got inside your head, better get up and leave instead

It took a moment before I lost myself in here It took a moment and I could not be found? Again and again and again I see your face in everything It took a moment the moment it could not be found?

To find ourselves lost here within we need reasons why So we take this bridge with the other's that will thrive in the great divide

Look at the red red changes in the sky

Again and again and again I see your face in everything Again and again and again I see your face in everything

It took a moment before I lost myself in here It took a moment and I could not be found? Again and again and again I see your face in everything It took a moment the moment it could not be found?
