30 Seconds to Mars, The Fantasy

With the lights out it's a little less dangerous Even with a stranger never gets painless Don't be afraid (afraid, afraid)

Every time I think I'm gonna change it (think I'm gonna change it, think I'm gonna change it) It's driving me (driving me) insane (insane) (Yeah, yeah, yeah)

Do you live, do you die, do you bleed For the fantasy In your mind, through your eyes, do you see It's the fantasy

Maybe tonight we can forget about it all It could be just like heaven I am a machine No longer living, just a shell of what I dreamed (Yeah, yeah, yeah)

Do you live, do you die, do you bleed For the fantasy In your mind, through your eyes, do you see It's the fantasy

Say it, say it, say what you believe Say it, say it, say it to me

Do you live, do you die, do you bleed For the fantasy Automatic, I imagine, I believe

Do you live Do you die Do you bleed For the fantasy

Do you live, do you die, do you bleed For the fantasy In your mind, through your eyes, do you see It's the fantasy Automatic, I imagine, I believe Automatic, I imagine, I believe

Say it, say it, say what you believe (Automatic, I imagine, I believe)
Say it, say it, say it to me (Automatic, I imagine, I believe)
Say it, say it, say what you believe (Automatic, I imagine, I believe)
Say it, say it, say it to me
Automatic, I imagine, I believe
I believe, I believe, I believe
