

5 Seconds Of Summer, English Love Affair

It started on a weekend in May
I was looking for attention needed intervention
Felt somebody looking at me
With a powder white complexion feeling the connection

The way she looked was so ridiculous
Every single step had me waiting for the next
Before I know, it was serious
Dragged me out the bar to the backseat of a car

When the lights go out
She's all I ever think about
The picture burning in my brain
Kissing in the rain
I can't forget my English love affair
Today, I'm seven thousand miles away
The movie playing in my head of her king size bed
Means I can't forget my English love affair

My English love affair

Next thing we were back at her place
A hideaway in Mayfair all the great and good there
Drinking all the way to third base
Princess getting naked falling on their faces

The story line was so ridiculous
Every single step had me begging for the next
Before I knew it, it was serious
Dragged me up the stairs and it wasn't ending there

When the lights go out
She's all I ever think about
The picture burning in my brain
Kissing in the rain
I can't forget my English love affair
Today, I'm seven thousand miles away
The movie playing in my head of her king size bed
Means I can't forget my English love affair

When I got out I knew that nobody I knew would be believing me
I look back now and know that nobody will ever change the memory

When the lights go out
She's all I ever think about
The picture burning in my brain
Kissing in the rain
I can't forget my English love affair
Today, I'm seven thousand miles away
The movie playing in my head of her king size bed
Means I can't forget my English love affair

My English love affair
