

77 Bombay Street, Long Way

It's time for waking up now, it's time to take my rags
I'm living my own town now I'm living with my bags
I close the doors behind me into the hills I go
If you could only see me 'cause I want you to know

It's a long way, out of my own town into your own town /x2

I'm playing with the fairies, I'm drinking from their wine
I'm singing to the music but I know it's in my mind
Don't care about the maker, don't care about the world
I'm looking for the answers while I'm walking in the dirt

I'm walking over mountains, I sail across the sea
I meet all kind of creatures and I feel you're here with me
I'm talking to the people, I ask them for the way
But they only stare at me, believe no world I say

It's a long way, out of my own town into your own town /x2
And it's a long way, out of my own town into your own town
It's a long way, a long loney way (lonely way)

I know I walk in circles, they say that I'm insane
But since the day you died something changed in my brain
Well it was just too much for me, I found no help in talking
Who can show me where to go, I have to keep on walking (yeah)

(Ouh-ouh) You're the only one in my mind /x2

It's a long way, out of my own town into your own town /x3
It's a long way, a long lonely way

I keep on walking, I keep on walking, I'm alking walking on (lonely way) /x3
I keep on walking, I keep on walking, I'm alking walking on (I'm walking on)
