

A Band Of Bees, The Start

Was it you in the shadows?
I've got to get this right
Walking away
With your arms folded tight
Hits from the start, shakin' it
Hits from the start
How can I promise
I'll never let you down?
Put one word on me
I'm not the new man in town
Hits from the start, shakin' it
Hits from the start
Oh, that's so not the way
You should look at it
The effort in art, comes from the heart
A place that's blood red and hits from the start
Hits from the start, shakin' it
Hits from the start
Hits from the start, shakin' it
Hits from the start
Mister mister
Draw me that picture
Put your suit and tie on
And pour yourself a glass of wine
Hits from the start, shakin' it
Hits from the start
You're in buyers' hands
You can't really lose
Just the dough you spent
And all the paint you use
Hits from the start, shakin' it
Hits from the start
Oh, that's so not the way
You should look at it
The effort in art, comes from the heart
A place that's blood red and hits from the start
Hits from the start
Hits from the start
Hits from the start
The start
