A-ha, Simulator

Start the simulator Controllers, listen up What's your status, Guidance? Let's take it from the top Coming up on docking The beginnings of a tear Clearing the tower We take to the air Start the simulator Give your tanks a stir The bright ejecta blanket All is in a blur Switch to Omni Bravo B Bus under volt Roll right to zero Steady as she goes We're gonna fly so high Into the rendered sky We're gonna be all right Inside the endless night Start the simulator I.S.O. valves are gray EDS to manual Translation looks okay Save it for the splash down Things you want undone You're in command now Your home away from home You're in control now Now you're on your own Now you're on your own You're in control You're in control
