A-ha, There's never and forever thing

Dearest... Dry your eyes now Don't you cry It's all right Lie back Leave the light on It's all right, dear I'll be here through the night With you till the first signs of light Say the word and I'll come tonight It's all right now Don't you cry now Hush... Wipe your tears away There's never a forever thing All through the night I'll try so hard to be there somehow With you till the first signs of light Say the word and I'll come tonight Darling, don't you cry.
