A1, Crazy

The crazy things I heard you say I'm mad about you all the same I never really saw the crime Yet went ahead and served my time I never met someone like you before But sometimes that is not enough Cuz I can't help this feeling

I must be crazy for leaving you Must be crazy for feeling blue But my heart lately has been untrue I must be crazy, crazy for leaving you

I will regret this choice of mine, I never wanna see you cry I care about you endlessly you deserve a deeper love than me I don't know if I'll make it on my own But I tried so hard to let it go And I can't hide this feeling

I must be crazy for leaving you Must be crazy for feeling blue But my heart lately has been untrue I must be crazy (crazy) crazy (crazy) For leaving-- you

And I know that I will miss you like a fool But there's something missing in my life And I can't hide this feeling I must be crazy for leaving you Must be crazy for feeling blue But my heart lately has been untrue I must be crazy, crazy, crazy for leaving you
