

Aaron Carter, City of Dreams

Ay, yeah

Look me in the eyes, tell me all these lies
What you see inside, wait, nevermind
You were never mine
No, you were never mine
Fuckboy out in LA, didn't know nobody
All alone in the city of dreams
Looking for the crossroads
Ready to sell my soul

Look, please forgive me
You got me repenting
I know I didn't mean it
I got a life sentence
I just wanted fame
To be a part of the game
Man, I was young
And I didn't know a thing

If I could go back now I'd change it
That's not how life goes
Look in the past
I'm repeating the cycle, I know
Repeating the cycle, I know

Look me in the eyes, tell me all these lies
What you see inside, wait, never mind
You were never mine
No, you were never mine
Fuckboy out in LA, didn't know nobody
All alone in the city of dreams

Look me in the eyes, tell me all these lies
What you see inside, wait, never mind
You were never mine
No, you were never mine
Fuckboy out in LA, didn't know nobody
All alone in the city of dreams
Looking for the crossroads
Ready to sell my soul

Look, please forgive me
You got me repenting
I know I didn't mean it
I got a life sentence
I just wanted fame
To be a part of the game
Man, I was young

Look me in the eyes, tell me all these lies
What you see inside, wait, never mind
You were never mine
No, you were never mine
All alone in the city of dreams

Yeah, yeah
Oh, yeah yeah
