

Aaron Lewis, Home

Forced myself through another day
Cant explain the way today
Just fell upon like everything
Right in my face

And I tried to be the one
I cant except it's all because of you
I had to walk away
From everything

And Im afraid to be alone
Afraid you'll leave me when i'm gone
And Im afraid to come back home

Another sleepless night again
Hotel rooms my only friend
And friends like that just don't add up
To anything

And I tried so hard to be
Everyhting that I sould never take away from you
Cus I heard you say

And Im afraid to be alone
Afraid you'll leave me when i'm gone
And Im afraid to come back home

I can not forgive
I live with regret
I can not forgive
I live with regret

I live through this
I cant tsee through this
I cant do this anymore

Cus Im afraid to be alone
Afraid you'll leave me when Im gone
Im afraid to come back home

Afraid you'll leave me when Im gone
I just wish I was back home
