Aaron Tippin, In My Wildest Dreams

I've built a million raving beauties out of pure make-believe Hopin' my imagination might run away with me Thought I'd pictured every vision that a man could dream about Till you walked through those swinging doors And stepped down off that cloud What's an angel like you doing in my wildest dreams A walkin', talkin', lovin' fantasy Did you come here tonight just to rescue me What's an angel like you doing in my wildest dreams

I thought I'd died and went to heaven when you sat down next to me Lord, and I said to myself this is too good to believe You look like you belong in a Sunday school choir Instead of in this honky tonk settin' me on fire

What's an angel like you doing in my wildest dreams A walkin', talkin', lovin' fantasy Did you come here tonight just to rescue me What's an angel like you doing in my wildest dreams

Are you just wishful thinkin', a figment of my mind I'll worry about that tomorrow, right now it's closing time

What's an angel like you doing in my wildest dreams A walkin', talkin', lovin' fantasy Did you come here tonight just to rescue me What's an angel like you doing in my wildest dreams
