

Abba, Watch Out

You move like a flame of fire your eyes like a flash of lightning the answer to all desire and I'm gonna tame you, wild thing

You'd better watch out
I said you'd better watch out
Watch out!
Anywhere you go I'll find you
Watch out!
I'll be staying close behind you and I'm tired of waiting
yes it's driving me crazy
and my patience is fading oo, you'd better watch out
I said you'd better watch out

It's been kind of funny lately you act like I was a stranger I think you begin to hate me but then you're a girl in danger

You'd better watch out oo, I said you'd better watch out Watch out!
Anywhere you go I'll find you
Watch out!
so you'd better watch out yes I said you'd better watch out

And I'm tired of waiting
I said you'd better watch out
oh girl you'd better watch out ah, you'd better watch out oo, ah, you'd better watch out
