

Abigor, Hyperwelt

I slayed love disguised as fear
And time itself touches my soul
Satan - the fire still burns within my soul
And with lifeless eyes I stare
A way out but not back I must find
A can no longer crawl through this life I hate
Soon I'll be thrown to the wolves again
And the balance returns again
When mind and body unite...
I close the temple of my mind
Im astralen Lichte glimmt mein Stern
Jenseits des Hters des Schwelle
Ein Stern der niemals erlischt
Ich bring' die Qualen
Ich bring' den Tod
Throughout so many lifetimes
In this dimension I've dwelt...
But I've never forgotten
Nor will I ever forgive
