

AC/DC, Witch's Spell

Let me tell your fortune
It could be sinister or maybe not
Like a leopard
Can't change its own spots
Ride a moon beam
Sail the starlight
Ablaze in the night sky
See the witch's flight

Caught in a witch's spell
Got a tale to tell
Caught in a witch's spell
Got a tale to tell
Caught in a witch's spell

Good time maker who likes it hot
Liek a card playin' shark who takes the whole lot
Riding moonbeam
Sail the starlight
Ablaze in the night sky
See the witch's flight

It's all coming to you
It's all coming through you
I get bathered in a light
The spell's just right

Crystal balls and an almanac
She gonna take you to hell and black
I've got poison, snake oil style
Good luck charms and a witch's spell
