

Accept, D-train

Accept

Eat The Heat

D-train

Life is something very strange

Never know where you are headed for

What to do nothing new

Nothing seems to be worth living for

'cause sometimes you fall off the track

But that don't mean it's wasted

Come on get your timing right

And check out what's a coming

Don't kiss the d-train

Kiss the d-train

You think you got no place to run

But just ahead there

Is an open floor, yeah

'cause you can't run-no-you can't hide

And you won't see while

Walking with closed eyes, no

Come on it ain't paradise

But that don't mean it's wasted

You've gotta get your timing right

And check out what's a coming

Don't kiss the d-train

Kiss the d-train

Don't be messning with the d-train

Kiss the d-train

Stay wavy from the d-train

Kiss tha d-train

Knock that shit off!
