

Accept, I'm A Rebel

They say I won't make it to the top of the hill
Won't take the fruit off the tree
And ev'rybody says I'm out for the kill

They're all laughing at me
They're all laughing at me

I'm a rebel - rebel - don't you just know it
I'm a rebel - rebel
And they're all laughing at me

They say I'm a danger to the public and all
I only wish they would see
I'm just the product of a screwed up world - but they're all

They're all laughing at me
But they're all laughing at me

I'm a rebel - rebel - don't you just know it
I'm a rebel - rebel - don't you just know it
I'm a rebel - rebel
But' they're all laughing at me

Never ever was my old blue jeans
And brush the smile off my face
But still I'm a member of the Human race - Human race - Human race - Human race
