Accept, The Rise of Chaos

Everybody's out to get me This new world's trying to take me down Break free but it won't let me Right now there's only one way out

All fight for survival In this apocalyptic maze Caught in a downward spiral Right through a cataclysmic blaze

All hell around you Just a continual descent Bedlam sorrounds you It's the beginning of the end

It's the rise of chaos The rats will rule this sinking ship The rise of chaos Surrender your souls and come to grips

No rules, laws or borders Killing for guns and gasoline This is the new world order A blackened future unforeseen

All hell around you Just a continual descent Bedlam sorrounds you It's the beginning of the end

It's the rise of chaos The rats will rule this sinking ship The rise of chaos Surrender your souls and come to grips
