

Acel Bisa, Tracy

Tears flowing down your cheeks
Why do you feel so sad today?
I've known you as someone who has
That smiley face...
Why the sudden change?
Tracy, don't you know you're the apple of his eyes?
Tracy, close your eyes and see how he smiles
You say you don't feel it
But I say, you just have to believe it
A bubbly girl you are to me
You are beautiful, sweet and friendly
And your eyes sparkle with delight
Coz you have found your one true love
Look at the flowers in the field
And how he paints the sky for you
Look at the stars that shine at night
So start shining for him tonight
Tracy, now you know you're the apple of his eyes
Tracy, don't close your heart and see how he smiles
You say now you feel it, and I say
You just have to believe it
Believe it
