

Acid Drinkers, Meltdown Of Sanctity

Meltdown Of Sanctity

Trying to be so good

You tore out god of my heart

To rule is only law

Is the only way you've got

No matter how hard you try

To change my mind

No matter how hard you fight

I won't lose my life

This empty words of prayer,

Bleeding eyes of hatred, freaks me out

Another dance of madness,

Where the saints are sinners, sightless life.

Broken morality, the meltdown of sanctity

With no humility, inside insanity

Born so pure, trying to change and defy

Broken morality, the meltdown of sanctity

After the crowd, taking easy way of life

With no humility, inside insanity.
