

Action Action, Four-Piece Jigsaw Puzzle

Starting to come together,
Starting to all make sense,
We began to blossom, so perfect,
I'm starting to understand.

And you have made this cove for us, again.

If this was any other day,
I'd surely just walk away.

Working it out so perfect,
A picture worth a thousand words,
Can't believe we took it, so wasted,
I'm starting to understand.

And I gather all myself, for you.
