

Acumen Nation, Ready To Die asleep in the half light breathing too deep to hear the swell penetrating the quicksand you've come to break my quarantine i guess i'm awake now a second to process the sounds of your screams let me just put some clothes on i need all i can get when i'm stripped bare because.. i am not to blame you can't get enough of my shame

you're always ready to fight it's like you're ready to die for all the reasons wrong enough for two it's always search and destroy with all your weapons deployed but with only baggage in the clip and oh my god what an endless supply of am-mu-ni-tion

please cooperate a stuttering eye and i'm under siege graduation is fleeting the cloud overhead has a shape that i can match good morning opposition round 2 begins when you're back from the brink because when seething from within like you are i can imagine the hours you spend getting sick

because.. i am not to blame

count to ten on 50 fingers penalty fists
engage my retreat (count to ten.. on 50 fingers penalty fists... engage my retreat)

because.. because... because..
