

Ad Infinitum, Into The Night

Eternal battle: what is wrong or right?
Am I a sinner for shutting the voice of my conscience down

How does it feel to fall into your darkness?
To let it out and step into the night

Into the night
The only place where I belong
Dead or alive
I will find my way, my fears are gone
A brand new start
I will be alright
When I step into the night

You walk those lands with a golden crown
Bathing in tears, you escape from the guilt with a treacherous smile

How does it feel to dance above all sadness?
To stop the fight and step into the night

Into the night
The only place where I belong
Dead or alive
I will find my way, my fears are gone
A brand new start
I will be alright
When I step into the night

Surrender to darkness
My humanity, the blood in my veins
Consecration, loneliness
Immortality isn't priceless

Into the night, into the night
The only place where I belong
Dead or alive, dead or alive
I will find my way, my fears are gone
A brand new start
I will be alright
When I step into the night
