

Ad Infinitum, My Justice, Your Pain

I'll always try to reach for the stars

Like a phoenix, like the morning star
I am reborn, not without a scar
Feel my fury as I dance
In the meadows of your pains
From my ashes I am born again

This got me going harder
I've been falling and rising stronger
But you see, watch it!
There's no fear in me
This got me going on

I'll watch you when you will go down for your crimes
And I sure will smile when you will beg for your life

I'll always try to reach for the stars
To break my chains and fly, oh no
Followed by the ghosts from the past
Trying to reach me, I'm too fast
They can come now, I'll make them cry

From the snake pit I escaped and now
Poison proof, no you won't drag me down
No tears to cry
No rain in my mind
Oh, this is me moving on

I'll watch you when you will go down for your crimes
And I sure will smile when you will beg for your life
Can't you see? I'm the essence of everything you hate
I am fearless, you can pray for your fate

I'll always try to reach for the stars
To break my chains and fly, oh no
Followed by the ghosts from the past
Trying to reach me, I'm too fast
They can come now, I'll make them cry

And I'm afraid to find my own ghost
Darkening my sky, oh no
These ghosts will not let me go
Try to catch me but they know
They can come now, I'll make them die

Lies, lies
Your suffocating lies
They took me by surprise
From here [?]

I'll always try to reach for the stars
To break my chains and fly, oh no
Followed by the ghosts from the past
Trying to reach me, I'm too fast
They can come now, I'll make them cry

And I'm afraid to find my own ghost
Darkening my sky, oh no
These ghosts will not let me go
Try to catch me but they know
They can come now, I'll make them die
