

Ad Infinitum, Revenge

I know how pain can talk to me
I remember how hate can make me feel

When lights go down
Sometimes these states of mind
Make me deaf and blind
But what goes around comes back around

Pain! Burns! Me!

Help me in my darkest moments, help me when I fall
When I lose myself in this hopeless blackhole
I believe revenge is not my way
I believe no one flies close to the sun without getting burnt

I hate when it brings me to my worst
So ashamed of this weakness, I feel cursed

When lights come back
I suddenly realise
It wasn't worth the cries
Hey! I'm allowed to be human

Remember the day my eyes turned black
Dark desire there is no turning back
Don't push me to the edge of control
I might aim at your weakness if I fall
