

Ad Infinitum, Your Enemy

You built your empire out of darkness
And where you see power, I see loneliness
No, I don't want this life
Do you remember?

You thought you left me to die, now I am fearless
Don't you see all the rage in my eyes? I'm set up for greatness
No, you won't see me cry
I'm dancing in the twilight with all your demons

And I know that I will give my life to fight the monster in you
I always knew
I wanna be you enemy
I don't care to die if it's my legacy
To set us free
I wanna be your enemy

Facing the storms and thunder, oh I am dauntless
I am the blade of fire fighting your madness
No, there's no turning back

Watch out, don't turn your back
Beware of the shadow in the corner of your eye
Fear me, I am free
Free from all the torment that you thought you could unleash on me
Cry, flee for your life
Know that I've no limit and I won't give up the fight
Tell me how does it feel
When the hunter we all fear becomes the prey we want to kill

And I know that I will give my life to fight the monster in you
I always knew
I wanna be you enemy
I don't care to die if it's my legacy
To set us free
I wanna be your enemy

And I will give my life to fight the monster in you
I always knew
I wanna be you enemy
I don't care to die if it's my legacy
To set us free
I wanna be your enemy
