

Adam Green, Nat King Cole

Oh I'm going with Darlene in a tragical part of the night, but I wish she would bring me a place of morning spectacular life, make it last just a few, brother's knew, brother's lovers proclaim, down at the subway station, just a few brother's mother's remain, oh help the children,

Down at the television station momma, your bored, getting tired, but baby you ain't trying to warn me that the macro-D getting fired, just like those bored down now second old cures, that we said, hubba hubba, just like that funny little lady momma, tidy and clean, just like butter,

Now I've been monkey-ing around, but a beat, bobbing free-wheeling guy, but this lean Adam Green found this motel is how I get by,

I got a hole in my berol Cheryl,
