

Adema, Co-Dependant

Most people don't care
Some people just fear
There's so much pressure
That my lives will feed us
Don't need a reason
I will get even
This is the season
Where I feel so manic
You hurt yourself and blame me when you fall
(Co-dependant)
You have lost control and crashed into a wall
(Co-dependant)
You're co-dependant
I am a bad seed
It fuels my own needs
I never was scared
To take my chances
I see the downfall
'Cause I'm not social
I've got my own life
And you can't stand it
You hurt yourself and blame me when you fall
(Co-dependant)
You have lost control and crashed into a wall
(Co-dependant)
Life has found a way where karma slaps you in the face
(Co-dependant)
You depend on me for everything
(You're co-dependant)
Co-dependant
Co-dependant
Co-dependant
Co-dependant
Co-dependant
Co-dependant
Co-dependant
Co-dependant
Co-dependant
Co-dependant
Co-dependant
Co-dependant
You're co-dependant
You hurt yourself and blame me when you fall
(Co-dependant)
Life has found a way where karma slaps you in the face
(Co-dependant)
You depend on me for everything
(You're co-dependant)
You're co-dependant
You're co-dependant
You're co-dependant
You're co-dependant
You're co-dependant
You're co-dependant
