Adrian John Loveridge, 400 Dragons

(chorus)
400 dragons
it's gonna be rough six million soldiers of fortune I'd fight them all for a night in your love...
400 dragons
if that aint enough send ten million Venus invaders
I'd shoot them all down
for a night in your love...

And if I was a liar
I'd give you the truth
I'd give you anything that you'd wanted now baby,
anything that pleases you

And if I was a dreamer you'd be the drug well I would appear in your dreams like a mystical scene ready to be taken and ready to love...

(chorus)

If I was a liar
I'd give you the truth
I'd give you anything that you'd wanted now baby,
anything that pleases you

And if I was a dealer you'd never loose
I'd give you every reason to believe there's no reason to deceived just give me a chance baby and I'd do it all to you

(chorus x2)

send ten million Venus invaders
I'd shoot them all down
for a night in your love...
send ten million Venus invaders
and I'd shoot them all down
for a night in your love...
