

Aerosmith, Avant Garden

I had a friend
Who spoke of fate
And he knew of another place
In space and time
He told of how me and my lady
Could look
But we could never find

Said if u please
I beg your pardon
Sometimes the things u c
They just ain't so
Your life can be
An avant garden
Cause love's what makes
Your garden grow

The sun leads the way
The moon lights the sky
I c u and I
Lying in my avant garden
I dream of the day
When our worlds collide
We won't be denied
Here inside r avant garden

Sometimes my life
Ain't what it seemin'
Right from the start it's what your heart's believin'
Could all this just be
Lucid dreamin'
But dreams just ain't
Enough for me

The sun leads the way
The moon lights the sky
I c u and I
Lying in my avant garden
I dream of the day
When our worlds collide
We won't be denied

You know it just ain't right
To deal with other's shite
No one should ever b
So broken hearted
Don't ever b afraid
Cause when u got it made
Yeah, u don't even have to try...

So I'll be waiting in your garden
Watching all your flowers grow

The sun leads the way
The moon lights the sky
I c u and I
Lying in my avant garden
I dream of the day
When our worlds collide
You'll know we've arrived
Here inside r avant garden

The sun brings the rain

The moon needs the sky
I c u and I
Lying in my avant garden
Beware of the lies
A word to the wise
There's sweet cherry pies
And truth inside r avant garden
