

Aerosmith, I Ain't Got You

Got a '56 Cadillac
With a spare tire on the back
Got a charge account in my old bank
Said, I ain't got you

Got a classic and a pool
And a big hair ghoul
No matter who I fool
Said, I ain't got you

Got a baby and a liquor store
I played the number of forty-four
Got a mojo and don't you know
I'm all dressed up with no place to go
Got women to the left of me
Women to the right of me
I got chicks all around me
Said, I ain't got you

Got a baby and a liquor store
I played the number of forty-four
Got a mojo and don't you know
I'm all dressed up with no place to go
Got women to the left of me
Women to the right of me
I got chicks all around me
Said, I ain't got you

Mr. Whitford!

You know I ain't got you, baby
