Aerosmith, Joanie's Butterfly

What a stormy night, when I met the pony It was so dark, that I could hardly see It smelled so sweet, you know who and Joanie So many butterflies, one could not see... We all could feel desire, took off in flight It was hotter than fire, then came the light

I smell the heat, the dancing ponies Unwrapped his wings, to dry off Joanie The pony he grew in size, the thunder and rain And finally realized, what was, what it does, and what it come to say

Love to kiss the cheek of mother nature, nobody here can deny such things Make the ladies you love come honey, no butterfly should be denied its wings...

He was kick ass rocking horse! He was like a hell bent tied to the Gavin pole He was a one time fantasy, I got the bare bones riding to the Holy Land Bare backed, riding like a running man, nightmares And he can't hold the candle to my dreams!

We rode the night, and took to wing, it was so all right, it was everything We flew into burning skies, the thunder and rain, and finally realized What it is, what it does, and what it come to say!

No, no, no, no, took off in flight No, no, no, no, then came the light

Flashback, something's coming over me, no sweat one time fantasy Bare bones all in the wind it seems, hell, who's the chick That rides into my dreams?

No Libury No stablize No one try to please Nobody's eyes

We'll never see us again, tell me when it passed
Let it all begin, but all of that time, somebody shot an arrow...
Being tempted by the time is never
Breaking me cause your cold sometimes...
Being seduced by your own pleasures
Being king on your own time...

He was a kick ass rocking horse, he was a... One horn, unicornucopia Two, two in utopia Three star, verge in to infinity Four, four, ya...ya hoo...
