

Aerosmith, Think About It

When will the clouds all blow it away when will the good people have a say now, I hope you're still around to see the day take a while, think about it (3 x's) who can tell what is up or down who can believe a king or be the clown then climb your tree, take a look around

that which is now, will be again who can decide, who is insane
