

Aerosmith, Under My Skin

U breathe, I breathe u in
I like a lot where u been
I make, u break the rule
U got e-rot-tickle cool
Give a little bit get a little bit
Take it for a ride, yeah
When u push love so far away
It eats u up inside

There's a girl living under my skin
There's this girl and she's wearing me thin
And I think she's the reason
That it's open broken hearted season

There's a girl, there's a girl

I know, u know u r
U r the oo in la la
Blow a little kiss, know a little bliss
Get a little high, yeah, yeah
And I can't get u out of me
Cuz you're 2 deep inside

There's a girl living under my skin
There's this girl and she's wearing me thin
And I think she's the reason
That it's open broken hearted season

U can spend your whole lifetime
Under my skin
U could be never more mine

There's a girl, there's a girl
There's a girl, there's a girl

Get a little bit
Give a little bit
Get a little high, yeah
When u push love so far away
It eats u up inside

There's a girl living under my skin
There's this girl and she's wearing me thin
And I think she's the reason
That it's open broken hearted season

There's a girl, there's a girl
There's a girl, there's a girl
And I think she's the reason
That it's open broken hearted season

There's a girl, there's a girl
There's a girl, there's a girl
There's a girl, there's a girl
There's a girl, there's a girl
There's a girl, there's a girl
There's a girl, there's a girl
