

After Midnight Project, Hollywood

Kill the lights
we're losing time
We won't win this fight
Until our hearts collide
We're either running away from nothing fast
Falling down until we finally clash
My god, Oh my god
Can you help me feel anything
I'm lost in a city of vultures, mobs and pigs
Eating away at every thing
Sometimes I wish I was never born
In Hollywood I get so scared
I don't know how to walk
I'm always running unprepared
I'm losing my hope
Sell my self for an hour of fame
I know it's a shame
But I don't care
'Cause You forget who you are when you come to Hollywood
This party never seems to end
And the drugs that kill all of his friends
Keep showing up and acting out
Even though we thought we threw them out
Hello, hello hospital
Look up to the sky its time to go
I wanna be buried by your side
Underneath a tree that hard to find
Sometimes I wish I was never born
In Hollywood I get so scared
I don't know how to walk
I'm always running unprepared
I'm losing my hope
Sell my self for an hour of fame
I know it's a shame
But I don't care
'Cause You forget who you are when you come to Hollywood
I've been dreaming about a world out there that's just so beautiful
I've been thinking about a world out there that's just so beautiful
It's just so beautiful
To me
