

Afterlife, Haze

No life to follow
Especially not mine
Hate feeds on sorrow
My memory of a crime

I know you don't remember
'Cause you were just a child
A whole explosion of anger
Humanity went wild

No risk was involved
But the soul of earth was down

You and you alone
And everybody else is gone
A fallen angel under star of sadness
I try to reach your hand
But I fall down in the sand
A life is lost down under all the madness
