Against The Current, jump

Why you so afraid to face it?
Why you so okay with wasting time?
Better happier to fake it
Lost inside
Back, back home

So if you wanna run away Tired of dreaming whan it's all about Never time to get close Try to change, but you choke Don't be afraid to let it go

So just jump
What are you waiting for?
Don;t be afraid of wanting something more
Jump
Until te deep end
To find your way back up
Don;t be afraid of waiting more
Just jump

You onlu miss it when it's all gone It's hard to see cause you sunk so low You keep on saying that the sun's gone Lost inside Back home

So if you wanna run away Tired of dreaming whan it's all about Never time to get close Try to change, but you choke Don't be afraid to let it go

So just jump
What are you waiting for?
Don;t be afraid of wanting something more
Jump
Until te deep end
To find your way back up
Don;t be afraid of waiting more
Just jump
