

Agatha, DANCING IN THE RAIN

I've been standing here alone, alone, alone
I know you could take me home, but I've got my own
And you could tell all these lies
Break my heart and say goodbye
I'm free dancing in the rain
I'm free dancing in the rain

'Cause you see I don't need all this masquerade
Don't you know I can tell when you are not yourself
I do think you're quite alright
Just not my type, not my style
I'm free dancing in the rain
I'm free dancing in the rain

Do you understand I don't mind falling in love?
'Cause a woolen scarf is not for the heart
But I would prefer a hot cup of tea
Than someone next to me who won't let me be
So I'm free dancing in the rain
I'm free dancing in the rain
