

Agathocles, Zero - Ego

Oh, you're so fucking cool, now you have become an army tool mind frustrated, you joined their clan, for legal butchery of innocent men, Now you're a man since you joined their clan, now you're a zero, a zero-ego,
And don't talk crap about human acts,
'cause you know it's a farce, to hide your hunger for violence, your need to hate and for suspense,
Now you're a man since you joined their clan,
now you're a zero, a zero-ego,
And in the pubs you beat us up, for no reason, you macho stud, but at least we've got an own mind instead of following the army blindly.
