

AGES, Burning Hearts

Finally I fancy to stay
I shattered all the understatement
The line flows drawn by pencil
Where does it end?
The notes are flying upwards and downwards
The Stave doesn't hold them and let's them go anytime
Let the curtain rise up.
How long can that be?

Don't stop me I'm going to set up
Don't stop me I always Can get up
I can't stop myself when it comes to my life

Even if I walked fifty miles my zeal would not change
I dont know why you don't understand it
After All you do for love
Like waterfall I fall down but thanks to ambition I never drown, never drown
Lets the curtain rise up
How long Can that be?

Don't stop me I'm going to set up
Don't stop me I always Can get up
I can't stop myself when it comes to my life
