

Agnes Carlsson, Look At Me Now

And I finally understand that I dont need your hand
I know I can be happy with who I am
Look at me now, look at me now
I tried my best gave you what you wanted
I gave you everything I could give
You didnt care and took me for granted
Thats not I bout wanna live
You thought that Id fall apart without you
You say that Ill come and call back in time
You didnt think that Ill dear to doubt you
But I made up my mind
Look me m so much stronger
Look at the way Ive spread my wings
But I cant believe I havent thought that you were the one that I need
Look at me, you see me smiling
No one is gonna bring me down
You didnt think that Ill survive it
Baby just look at me now
You say youre different and now you realized
That you were crazy to let me go
If for a while there were tears in my eyes
Im standing here on my own
So if youre thinking Ill reconsider
And take you back again for one more try
Im moving on and know Im not reader
This is the last good-bye
Look me m so much stronger
Look at the way Ive spread my wings
But I cant believe I havent thought that you were the one that I need
Look at me, you see me smiling
No one is gonna bring me down
You didnt think that Ill survive it
Baby just look at me now
And I finally understand that I dont need your hand
I know I can be happy with who I am
Look at me now look at me now
