My friends keep saying That I need patience Fools rushing, better slow down They keep saing but good things come But I dont wanna wait My heart is sakin, Im not mistaken The moment I saw you My whole world started to change You could be what Ive been looking for I come back for more And I want you to know I wanna feel love, love, love Lift me up to the sky Oh give me love, love, love Take my higher than high I will show you heaven When i get you alone I dont wanna wait anymore You see right through me Cant hide it for you Do we remember, I refuse to for shame Its not a crime to want love and more Its happened before And I want you to know I wanna feel love, love, love Lift me up to the sky Oh give me love, love, love Take my higher than high I will show you heaven When i get you alone I dont wanna wait anymore Im waiting for a sing You made up your mind?
