Agnes Obel, Dorian

They won't know who we are So we both can pretend It's written on the mountains A line that never ends

As the devil spoke we spilled out on the floor And the pieces broke and the people wanted more And the rugged wheel is turning another round

Dorian, carrion, Will you come along to the end Will you ever let us carry on

Swaying like the children, Singled out for praise The inside out on the open With the straightest face

As the sad-eyed woman spoke we missed our chance, The final dying joke caught in our hands And the rugged wheel is turning another round

Dorian, carrion, Will you come along to the end Will you ever let us carry on

Dorian, carrion, Will you come along to the end Will you ever let us carry on Dorian, will you follow us down
