

Aiden, Moment

I will wait for this moment
when our lips collide
and almost stop the earth you're in my arms tonight

so I've come to complicate the dead are you with me?
I've rewritten all my vows again we're almost home to see the silence break on new years eve
we're only 17
if love exists
I will fall

I will wait for this moment

just one more kiss to see the pain exists in a world of lies misery take my shame alive and everything

fails a violent death the smile you gave visit me in hell tonight and say
"if love exists, I will fall"

I'll wait for this moment

so I I laugh alone (I laugh alone)
so I I laugh alone (I laugh alone)
so I I laugh alone (I laugh alone)
so I I laugh alone (I laugh alone)

I feel so alive
I feel so alive tonight
I feel so alive, can't stop this feeling

so alive
I feel so alive
