

Air Supply, You Are The Reason

(Graham Russell)

Here's on the street
a tear in the seam
of pleasure and pain Life carries on a cloak of deceit
brings honour to shame
But the voice I used to know (Where are you now?)
is the one I can't let go

Chorus:
You are the reason
my faith in tomorrow
A Distant horizon
the one I must follow
You are the first, You are the last

I help you to see the light in the dark
the sun through the rain
until you are free
and facing the truth
that words can't explain
But the truth I think you know (Tell me)
I could never let you go

Chorus

you are the future from the past
You are the spell that has been cast

You are the reason
my faith in tomorrow
A distant horizon
the one I must follow

Chorus

You are the first
You are the last to me
oom hm.....You are to me...You are
