

Airto, True Friends

This is something that I must do
'cause I realized, that it's about time
I let 'em, know what I think of them
And I hope I can find, the words to describe
How thankful I am that I have em
How grateful I am I can count on
People that know what I'm about
They lift me up
When I'm down
They're always there
When I'm losing ground
There should be nothing left unsaid
They give me strength
When I am weak
They're always there to make me see
That there's a light at the end
I guess they are true friends
I know, that if I'm on the down low
They would hop on by, just to see if I'm alright and
They would, make sure that I'd feel good
And it's safe to say that they're a phonecall away
Cause we share
The pleasure and pain that were feeling
Give a hug or a shoulder when in need and
How can I not return the deed
They lift me up
When I'm down
They're always there
When I'm losing ground
There should be nothing left unsaid
They give me strength
When I am weak
They're always there to make me see
That there's a light at the end
I guess they are true friends
I know they are true friends...