

AJR, Turning Out Pt. III

Got it of my system, didn't I?
Did my two years on Tinder, didn't I?
Well, I wanted to be wanted
Suddenly, I'm wanting more

So we got a bit tangled, didn't we?
It's the best thing that's happened to me
Got exactly what I wanted
What if I don't want this?
Am I missing something?

'Cause half the time I can't love right
And I can't have sex, and we both get quiet
Boy, I must be one fucked up guy

Oh my God, what a crazy mind
It'll be fine, quick, let's get married
Man, I wish we were eighty-five
The rest of our life wouldn't sound so scary
Oh, I'm spiraling now
Let's get kids and a house
Though I'm riddled with doubts
Is this how we turn out?

Hey, I love how you laugh when we're alone
How my dog's always happy when you're home
But my parents used to laugh too
And I think they had a dog
I don't know, I don't know

But you're late and you're messy, aren't you?
And I need too much attention from you
Though we shrug it off as nothing
Life is pretty long
It could turn into something

'Cause half the time I can't love right
And I'm half yours, and you're all mine
Boy, I must be one fucked up guy

Oh my God, what a crazy mind
It'll be fine, quick, let's get married
Man, I wish we were eighty-five
The rest of our life wouldn't sound so scary
Oh, I'm spiraling now
Let's get kids and a house
Though I'm riddled with doubts
Is this how we turn out?

Everyone's got it
Everyone's got it
Everyone's got it
All figured out
Everyone's got it
What do I not get
Everyone's got it
All figured out
Everyone's got it

Don't overthink it
One day at a time, kid
Add up the days
You got someone to do life with
Don't overthink it

It's not fucking science
Add up the days
You got someone to do life with

Everyone's got it

Don't overthink it
One day at a time, kid
Add up the days
You got someone to do life with
Love isn't big, kid
It's little and quiet
Let's do today
I think you'll turn out to like it
