

Akon, The Rain [Clean]

Yeah, oh diddy, oh diddy, oh
Ah, ah, konvict, konvict
Ah, ah, konvict music, yeah
The pressure's buildin' up, I feel like givin' up
How in the f*** am I gonna back my first album up
Well, everything has changed, it'll never be the same
Nobody know me then everybody knows my name
And I feel so ashamed
I never been the kinda *** that would complain
But it's so crazy man, it's no different
Everyday it's just the same thing
Now it's been months out on the road
On tour doin' so many different shows
Head spinnin' feelin' like it's gonna explode
And I just wanna know
If anybody out there's feelin' me
I'm losin' my mind and I can't believe
I let this s*** get the best of me
And now I gotta let you know
One's got me insane, oh, 'cause I can't stand the rain, hey
It's hitting my window pane a little too much
And now I gotta let you know
One's got my face in a frown, hey, 'cause I can't stand the sound, oh
The thunder that's crashing down upon my house
Hey, 'cause now I gotta let you know
Now I got no more worries now, my pocket's fatter now
Look in the mirror my reflection looks different now
You're gettin' bigger, Akon you need to settle down
Why do I feel this way
Should I be happy, oh, should I just ignore
Everything that I've been given, please help me Lord
It's all over but I can't escape the rain
Now it's been months out on the road
On tour doin' so many different shows
Head spinnin' feelin' like it's gonna explode
Now I gotta let you know
If anybody out there's feelin' me
I'm losin' my mind and I can't believe
I let this s*** get the best of me
Now I gotta let you know
One's got me insane, oh, 'cause I can't stand the rain, hey
It's hitting my window pane a little too much
That's why I gotta let you know
One's got my face in a frown, hey, 'cause I can't stand the sound, oh
The thunder that's crashing down upon my house
Singin', woe diddy, woe diddy, woe
